A. Dage Precision Industries.

Q. And what is your position at Dage?

A. I'm the service manager.

Q. And how long have you held that position?

A. I don't recall exactly when I was promoted, but approximately four years. 11:08:51AM

Q. What are your responsibilities as the service manager at Dage?

A. To repair all systems in my territory, to install all systems in our territory. Also, to provide help to the sales department, technical help or support. Also, I do applications work on the x-ray side. 11:09:16AM

Q. This lawsuit involves an x-ray machine that was shipped from Dage in California to a company called Accu-Spec in Pennsylvania. Do you recall that specific x-ray machine? 11:09:41AM

A. Yes.

Q. Before Dage ships an x-ray machine like the one that was shipped to Accu-Spec, what steps does Dage take to prepare the machine for shipment? 11:10:01AM

A. If you can rephrase that question, because -- the reason I say that is, typically, our systems are shipped from the UK. In this case this is a demo machine, so it was shipped from Fremont. Do you want me to tell you what steps were taken in Fremont or what steps were taken at 11:10:24AM
